

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1896.

NO. 88

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

The Methodists are preparing for a big protracted meeting to begin soon. We have not learned who will do the preaching.

Mrs. McD. Jones, who has been confined to her bed since the holidays began, is much improved and will be up in a few days.

Mr. W. O. Bryant gave a party at Keeney's hall Monday night. V. R. Coleman is furnishing the Liberty Tribune with the news from this section.

Cy Tombs, colored, who lived at Freetown near Mt. Salem, lost his house and all its contents by fire Thursday. The loss is pretty heavy as he was a poor man and had just killed his hogs and the meat was stored away in the house, besides about $10 in money was lost in the flames. It is not known how the house took fire.

The box supper given by the ladies was a success financially. The receipts amounting to nearly $40, to be used in purchasing a carpet for the new Christian church, which will be completed soon. The lady Masons (I reckon that's what you call 'em) also gave a supper at Janie Wash Institute on the night of the 27th, which was said to have been a success.

The fall term of Janie Wash Institute will close Jan. 17th, and the spring term will begin Jan. 27th, with Lena J. Caperton as principal. Miss Caperton is a daughter of Rev. A. C. Caperton, of Louisville, who was once editor of the Western Recorder. She is a graduate of Georgetown College and comes highly recommended as a teacher. Prof. J. H. Allen will have charge of the intermediate and primary departments of the school and a most successful term is predicted.

Mr. H. C. McWhorter and Miss Joanna Adams, daughter of Mr. J. B. Adams, of Fishing Creek, were married at Mr. Rohr's McWhorter's, at Yosemite, Wednesday. It was given out that the wedding would take place at the Baptist church and the house was crowded at the appointed hour to witness the tying of the knot, when a courier arrived and informed Rev. Grider that his presence was desired at Yosemite. It was then that the people realized that they had been sheated and a general expression of indignation was heard over the house. Some determined not to be outdone, however, jumped into buggies and hastened over in time to see the job well done, while others walked slowly home in anything but a happy frame of mind. Mr. McWhorter is the youngest son of J. W. McWhorter, Sr., and is an industrious young man, while his bride, who is a school teacher, is said to be a most excellent woman and we bespeak for them a happy voyage o'er life's fitful sea.

The "Lee of Virginia" series will begin in the next (February) number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, with the introductory article specially written for it by Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, upon "The Ancestors of General Robert E. Lee," in England and in Colonial Virginia, and the times in which they lived. This article, and those to follow, will be profusely illustrated, the whole forming an authoritative pictorial chronicle of the distinguished family which has given to America so many statesmen, warriors, and types of chivalrous patriotism.

Our delinquents will please turn to Romans 13:8 and resolve this New Year to keep the command therein given—Interior Journal.

This is a dreary waste of time and space.—Danville Advocate.

We are aware of that, but are trying to do a little evangelizing this year and hope to win even those vile sinners to a better course and better deeds.

Representative B. B. King, of Lincoln, said to a Courier-Journal man: "I am going to vote for Dr. Hunter, but if he does not show up with safe strength early in the race I am going to vote for John W. Yerkes or Judge T. Z. Morrow, of Pulaski county. I will not vote for Hunter at all if Mr. Yerkes' name is presented, and it might be that I would prefer Judge Morrow to the doctor. I think that Judge Holt will finally be nominated."

The Schubert Symphony Club and La- dy Quartette is one of the finest that has ever visited our city and the splendid program rendered by them delighted all who were fortunate enough to hear it. The members of the company are all artists of high order of talent.—Gallipolis, O. Herald.

At Walton's Opera House Jan. 11.

All the nickels and cents are coined at the Philadelphia mint and nearly 100,000,000 are made yearly. The government makes a large profit on them, the copper in 1,000 cents only costing $1 and the nickels only 1½ cents a piece.

A late census of the "big trees" of Gallia shows that there are 2,675 of the giants still standing, the largest being 33 feet and six inches in diameter.

Mrs. Henry Curtis, of LaFayette, Ind., is the mother of 25 children, including seven pairs of twins.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

Cassy Owlesy entertained at his home on Danville street Saturday evening in honor of some of his friends.

Miss Annie Brown Royston entertained the walking club on Thursday evening at her home on Lexington street.

Mr. Jesse Fox shipped two car loads of mules to the Southern market last week. O. P. Stone sold to Lawson 15 sheets at 3c.

Mrs. Georgie Dunn gave a party one evening last week in honor of her two recent visitors, Misses Higgins and Royston, of Manse.

Last week Mr. Alex T. Westsold his farm on the Lexington pike three miles of Lancaster, consisting of 5½ acres to Mrs. Eliza Lear, for $3,400.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Robinson gave a most sumptuous dining at their pretty home on Stanford street, Sunday to a number of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jarvis entertained recently at their country home in honor of their guests, the Misses Ruins, of Lebanon, and Misses Finch, of Danville.

The young men of our vicinity will give another one of their hops on Thursday evening. To all of the lovers of the Terpsichorean art this news will be gratifying.

Died in this county on the Fall Lick pike on Thursday, in the 70th year of his age, Mr. William Dodd. He had been ill of Bright's disease for a year or more past. The remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery on Friday.

There was a fuller attendance than usual at the Christian Endeavor society Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. It was a consecration meeting and was conducted by Miss Helen Gill, assisted by Miss Mamie Noel.

The group of pictures in a recent edition of the Courier-Journal contained a most excellent likeness of Lancaster's distinguished dead, Gen. W. J. Landrum.

The photograph was included with a long list of distinguished men whose death has occurred in the past year.

Lancaster had something novel last week in the way of a colored jury, which was chosen to try one of their race. It may be that other towns in the State have within their recollection had colored jurors to try a case, but nothing of the kind ever occurred in our quiet little city before.

Mr. C. D. Powell has rented and moved his family to the new and lately finished residence of Mr. A. G. Scott on Depot street, paying $150 rent. Mr. Powell comes to us highly recommended by the good people of Stanford. We are always glad to have good citizens and extend all such a cordial welcome.

Marietta had a wedding last week at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold, their daughter, Miss Lula, to Mr. S. W. Johnston, a widower of this county, living near Bryantsville. Miss Arnold with her parents were residents of Lancaster for a number of years before they located in Marietta. May fragrant flowers cluster continually around their pathway.

It seems that Lancaster can and will come to the front if possible. The man who is now in the front rank is Judge Wm. McKee Duncan, of Louisville, who is likely to succeed Judge Jackson, of that city, lately deceased, as circuit judge. Judge Duncan was for many years a resident of Lancaster. This is his birth place and it was here that he brought his handsome bride to live. It is but natural that the people should feel much pride in any of her citizens who rise to honor and fame.

Miss Mary Ragsdale, of Cincinnati, is being entertained by Mrs. J. M. Hatt, Miss Bernice Hamilton has returned to her home in Nicholasville. A. H. Rice is at home from Nicholasville on a visit to his parents. Mrs. Blanche Sweeney is at home from London on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clemmons. Miss Dunn, of Danville, is the guest of Miss Mand Robinson. Mrs. Geo. Scott has returned to Jessamine. Miss Christine Bradley has joined her parents at Frankfort. Messrs. Richard Denny and Jack Rout, of Stanford, were here Sunday. Mr. Clel Terrell and family have gone to Williamsburg to live. Miss Mary Welch, of Nicholasville, is visiting at Mr. John E. Storres'. Miss Allie Brown is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rosa Crow, of Louisville. Miss Crutchfield, of Stanford, is the guest of the Misses Penmireys. Miss Ellie Walker, has returned to Atlanta after a pleasant visit to Miss Mattie Walker. Misses Kate and Pearl Cormey have returned to Louisville. Mr. Malcolm Tillett visited relatives in Lexington last week. Mr. Harry Fox, of Eaton, O., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. Joseph. Mrs. Blanche Sweeney has as her guest Miss Lena Williams, of London. E. W. Harris left Sunday for Frankfort to serve as a jurymen.

Dr. H. M. Grant and Miss Grace Kincaid narrowly escaped a very serious accident. They were returning from a visit in the country, just this side of Judge Walker's residence, nearing the railroad track when the horse became frightened at the coming train and started to run off. Dr. Grant jumped from the buggy and by heroic effort managed to hold him. In the effort to hold the refractory animal he was thrown down and knocked about for awhile, but still he held to the reins and except for that Miss Kincaid may have been dashed to pieces. Neither was hurt at all.

Lancaster will be visited Friday evening, Jan. 10, by the Schubert Concert Co., of Chicago. The K. P. have engaged the company and they will give us an entertainment at the court-house on that evening.

The new drug firm that we will have to open up in R. H. Batson's store-room adjoining the livery stable will be Bryant & Benge, instead of Hamilton, Grinstead and Benge as we first heard it would. Mr. Bryant comes from Paris to locate with us, and is highly recommended as a druggist.

The information has recently been conveyed to the Lancaster people of the marriage of a former Lancaster young lady, Miss Annie Byrne Hopper, the second daughter of Mrs. Martha Hopper.

The wedding occurred, Dec. 31, at Charleston, W. Va., in which the destiny of two lives were sealed, that of Miss Annie Byrne Hopper and Mr. May of Montana.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

At Winchester there are 411 Baptists, 803 Christians, 162 Cumberland Presbyterians, 45 Episcopalians, 639 Methodists, 231 Presbyterians, 223 Catholics and 29 Jews.

The elevation of Archbishop Satolli to the rank of cardinal at the cathedral in Baltimore Sunday was accompanied by elaborate ceremonies. Cardinal Gibbons and upward of 25 American bishops participated.

Mr. J. L. Beazley will address the Young People's Society of the Baptist church at the regular meeting there next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in compliance with a unanimous request from that flourishing society.

Dr. Talmage has already succeeded in raising a row in his church at Washington. He is co-pastor with Dr. Rothchild, but wants to monopolize all the time, and the presbytery has been called on to settle the matter.

The Methodists of Burgin, began a revival in their church about two weeks since which has resulted in 72 conversions up to Friday. The Rev. Culpepper, of Georgia, conducted the meeting until relieved by the Rev. J. W. Hughes, of Wilmore, who will continue the meeting until interest closes.

The week of prayer began Sunday night at the Presbyterian church with services by Rev. J. T. Sharrard, last night they were to be held at the Christian church by Rev. W. S. Grinstead, to-night at the Methodist church by Rev.

A. V. Sizemore, Wednesday night at the Baptist church by Eld. Joseph Ballou, Thursday night at the Presbyterian church by Rev. R. B. Mahony, Friday night at the Christian church by Rev.

B. Helm and Saturday night at the Methodist church by Dr. William Shelton.

Rev. A. V. Sizemore in his sermon

Sunday said that the members of his church, though he has persistently urged them to do so, do not attend the prayer meetings and the Sunday-school. They are setting a bad example for their children, he said, for which they will have to give an account. He stated that he was sorry, and exceedingly so, that the good old fashioned plan of parents taking their children to church with them and having the father to sit on one end of the bench, the mother on the other and the children between them, had by fashion been abandoned, for the modern plan with the children scattered over the house, giving them an opportunity to act irreverently in God's house. The Baptist church members ought to adopt all of their pastor's suggestions.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Dr. Grant will be in Crab Orchard Saturday to accommodate those who need work in dentistry.

Our drug store has moved into new quarters especially prepared for the sale of drugs, where they are now arranged in handsome style.

Miss Jean Buchanan spent a few days at her home here and returned to Louisville with her sister, Mrs. John A. Hulman. Mr. John Carson has a position in Lancaster, to which place he went a few days since.

Bro. Wm. Anderson was greeted

Sunday by a large and appreciative audience. He gave a very encouraging talk to the Christian Endeavor band at the Christian church Sunday afternoon and enthused all of his hearers very much.

There has been a good deal of moving in town. Mr. Chadwick rented his cozy little residence to Mr. W. A. Beazley and moved to the home for the parson, where we trust he will be able to give solid comfort to the unfortunate, but the citizens of Crab Orchard give him and his family up with reluctance.

Miss Clara Myers, of Cincinnati, is visiting her cousin, Miss Minnie Myers. Miss Alice Moore, after a delightful visit to friends in Lancaster, returned home accompanied by Miss Myrtle Wilds, who is now her guest. Mr. Mayfield and family, of Lexington, are visiting Mr. Wm. Stewart and family. Miss Lizzie Gormley has returned from a pleasant stay in Lexington. Miss Bessie Fayne left Monday for Bowling Green. Mrs. Dr. Black, of Knoxville, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fish. She will soon be joined by her husband, Mr. Ivon Fish spent Sunday with his parents. Miss Capitola Slusher, has returned from a visit to her aunt, "Katydids," in Alabama.

ON A LOCAL NATURE.

All the saloons have been closed at Pingville.

Auditor Stone appointed a Richmond darkey to be his messenger.

There were only 32 interments of Danville people in the cemetery there last year; a decrease of 20 against the year before.

The L. & N.'s $4,000 depot at Richmond has been completed and it wasn't too soon. A decent depot has long been needed there.

Mannie, the 8-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carter, died at Lebanon Junction Sunday and will be buried in Buffalo Cemetery this morning. Mr. Carter formerly lived at Rowland.

J. Sherman Cooper was appointed superintendent of schools in Pulaski to fill out the unexpired term of Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. J. Davidson.

Wash Richardson, a prosperous farmer of Pulaski, believes that he will die on the 15th of this month, and notwithstanding he is in perfect health, he is making preparations to join the silent majority.

Albert S. White, the colored attorney of Louisville, is being urged for one of the four positions as republican delegate-at-large from Kentucky. What's the matter with George Gentry? He deserves the honor more than any other colored republican.

Hiram Lighter, of Athens, O., has received a N. Y. draft for $500 from a man he helped and thought was a tramp.

The banking business must be good in Georgia. The First National of Rome has just declared a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent, and the National Bank of Columbus, announced a 10 per cent. dividend.

Gov. Bradley would not accept the bond of State Treasurer-elect Long because his surety for the $300,000 is a guarantee company. The bonds of several other officers were returned for various reasons.

The Danube flows through countries in which 32 languages and dialects are spoken. It is 2,000 miles in length and bears on its current four-fifths of the commerce of Eastern Europe.

A New Jersey man, who was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment on conviction of having assaulted his step-daughter, has been released after serving 20 months in prison on the confession of the girl that she had perjured herself.

During the year just ended, according to Dun's review of trade, there were 13,197 commercial failures throughout the United States, as against 13,885 in 1894, a decrease of 688. Liabilities were $173,196,000, as compared with $172,928,560, an increase of $203,144.

The Senate finance committee has decided to report a substitute for House bond bill, which shall provide for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, withhold all authority for issuing bonds, prohibit the issue of bank notes of any denomination less than $10, provide for redeeming greenbacks in gold or silver and direct the secretary of the treasury to coin the silver bullion now in the treasury for the purpose of redeeming treasury notes issued under the act of 1890.

The Q. & G., limited train, No. 1, leaving Cincinnati at 8 A. M. will stop at Georgetown and make close connection with the Kentucky Midland for Frankfort. C. D. Bercaw, G. P. A.

Good Bye to the Old and Welcome to the New Year.

We feel sad to separate with the old but welcome the new with faith in the hand that has ever guided us in the past. The curtain has dropped over the old and we come to the new to make of it the best we can. As the old year closes we close all our accounts and shall not open another set of books, save for those to whom we are indebted, but shall continue to close our stock for

Cash Only

We want your help and know we can do you good. All want a dollar to go as far as possible and ours is the place to invest your cash. We invite not only the trade but merchants to come and help us close out so as to get out of the way. You can buy them as cheap from us as we can buy them. Come and try it.

HUGHES &amp

GOV. BRADLEY must have become a mighty slow writer or his message to the Legislature will be the longest on record. Nearly every dispatch from Frankfort for the last three weeks or more has told about his hiding out from office seekers to work on his message, which will be delivered to the Legislature to-day. If half of the promises made during the canvass are kept, it will recommend many steps toward retrenchment and reform. He will of course ask that numerous and sundry offices be abolished, including that of register of the land office, and that the salaries of others be reduced to conform to his ideas of economy in the administration of governmental affairs. Of course he will recommend the overhauling of the books in all the departments by expert accountants, which will, according to the republican cry before the election, show no end of rottenness and rascality. We are expecting great things and great revelations, so do not disappoint us, governor. The whole State is looking at you.

ENGLAND seems to have stirred up a real prospect of war in South Africa by placing an armed force in Transvaal, the greatest gold producing country in the world, with the intention of annexing it to Cape Colony. Germany looks on the invasion as a deliberate attempt on the part of the British to enforce their policy of keeping Europe divided into two camps, in order to facilitate English aggressions and encroachments in Africa and elsewhere, and it is said that the Emperor has come to an agreement with France to arrest the British advance in South Africa. This means war if it is undertaken, and with two wars on hand at once, England will go to the demolition bowwows. There is hardly a possibility of war with us, though. The commission will spend the $100,000 appropriated for its expenses; England will back down when she sees the U. S. is in earnest and peace will continue to spread her wings between the two countries.

SENATOR BLACKBURN is determined if possible to capture the democratic organization of the Legislature and has accordingly brought out Editor James M. Richardson, of the Glasgow Times, for speaker and it is said will put him up for chairman of the joint democratic caucus, against Hon. W. W. Stephenson, of Mercer, a McCrea man. Mr. Richardson is an extreme free silverite and an unwavering supporter of Blackburn. We dislike to see him go down in such a cause, but he has made his bed hard and he must lie hard. Carroll ought to be given the nomination without contest. P. S.—Yesterday's papers say that Richardson has sensibly declined to permit himself to be used as a cat's paw and will not allow the use of his name for the speakership, so Carroll will have a walk-over.

It makes one whose marrow is nearly frozen with a temperature hovering around zero in this dead of winter, long to fly away and he at rest to read about the tournament of roses now in progress at Pasadena, Cal. The parade was participated in by a great number of people and many thousands witnessed it. A large number of six-in-hand coaches, four-in-hands, double and single teams, literally covered with roses, marguerites, water lilies, carnations and sunlax, were in line. A single coach utilized 4,000 carnations in decorations. The parade of bicycles decorated with flowers was a feature of the procession. The coaches and carriages scattered roses along the line of march, and threw flowers to the spectators.

The Louisville Commercial is the most inconsistent sheet that ever tried the patience of a long suffering people. It pretends to favor sound money, yet it persistently opposes and misrepresents every democrat who is not for free silver. Its advocacy of Senator Blackburn ought to damn him in the eyes of decent people if he had not other sins to answer for. The Commercial is so thoroughly unreliable that to be certain that it is a lie you have only to see a statement printed in its disreputable columns.

LOUISVILLE is making a big play for the National democratic convention and every Kentuckian will hope that her ambition will be realized. St. Louis is also offering big inducements and next to Louisville, we believe our people greatly would prefer to see the convention held there. Hon. Breckinridge Jones, of St. Louis, has written to a number of Kentucky friends to use their influence for his city, but he had evidently not heard that Louisville would seek the honor.

HON. GEORGE V. TRIPPLETT has ceased to publish the Stanley Post at Owensboro and accepted his former position as managing editor of the Inquirer. He wields a facile pen and having been raised up to newspaper work knows all the gaits. Mr. Triplett is the man who sent his name echoing down the corridors of time by inflicting upon the public that immortal poem, beginning, "Girl in hammock, reading book."

REALIZING that he is a hack number, it is said that Senator Hill has laid aside his ambition to be president and that Mr. Whitney will shortly announce himself beyond the range of consideration as a candidate. It is a rather humiliating confession, but the list of possible candidates for the democratic nomination is very short, and it may turn out that the party will have to re-nominate Mr. Cleveland in self defense. We believe, however, that long before the convention he will have stated in unmistakable terms that the unwritten popular law against third terms is a binding a principle as the unwritten international law laid down by President Monroe against foreign encroachment of American territory.

DR. HUNTER, who usually gets what he goes after, is said to have fixed up this slate for the House to adopt to-day: Charles Blandford, of Breckinridge, for speaker; J. Speed Smith, of Madison, for chief clerk; T. S. Kirk, of Painteville, for assistant clerk; John L. Rich, of Covington, for enrolling clerk; R. C. Hill, of Beattyville, for sergeant-at-arms. If it be really true that the doctor has named this crowd, it is good bet at heavy odds to make that it will win. Since the above was written Lyons and Filppen, the other candidates for speaker, have withdrawn and the slate goes through with out opposition.

HON. A. E. WILSON, who Gov. Bradley said in a speech here had done more than any man in Louisville to get the city into republican line, has been turned down by members of the Legislature from the city, all of whom are for Hunter. As Wilson is a much better equipped and a far more deserving man than Hunter, this action on their part is inexplicable only on the hypothesis that "soap" has been used. Otherwise, home pride, to say nothing of his better qualifications for Senator, would have led the Louisvillians, with the accent on the latter syllable, to support Mr. Wilson.

AGAIN all he has done to wreck democracy in this State, it will be a shame to nominate Senator Blackburn for re-election, even if it only be complimentary, and it is to be hoped that the democrats of the Legislature will not be guilty of such imbecility. To him more than to any other one man is due the fact that Kentucky is now under republican rule and he ought to have this fact impressed on him in a most emphatic manner by those who have it in their power to do so.

THE Georgetown Times is 29 years old and like good liquor continues to improve with age. Its present editor, Mr. John A. Bell, has presided over its destinies all that time, and made it a power for good. If it is true, it will be found in the Times; otherwise not, for it is absolutely the most reliable paper in the State. May it live forever and its clever editor never die.

Gov. McCREA's managers say he has 33 votes promised beyond doubt and that the five members of the Legislature, who are unpledged, are sound money men, who will not vote for Blackburn. If these claims are good the governor seems to have a pretty sure thing as only 35 votes are necessary for the nomination.

THE Legislature meets to day under the remarkable state of tie politically. The House is largely republican and will have plain sailing electing the officers named by the house, but the Senate is democratic and will be manned by democratic officials, as well as prove a most healthy check on the House.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND signed the proclamation that made Utah a State, Saturday, and now there are 45 in the glorious constellation. Polygamy and Statehood do not go together and the followers of Brigham Young will have to seek other fields for the practice of their unnatural religion.

THE Cubans seem to have their struggle for liberty nearly won and will soon throw off the galling Spanish yoke. They are much better fighters than the Spanish hired men and being used to the climate and knowing the ropes are able to outwit them on every hand.

THE name of Gov. Brown will be presented to the democratic caucus for the nomination for Senator, but the ex-governor doesn't stand as much chance as a short tail bull in fly time, and he oughtn't to.

THE Breckinridge News, which by the way is the neatest printed paper in the State, publishes the Ten Commandments presumably as a matter of news to its benighted patrons.

—Constantine, a 100 to 1 shot, won a race at New Orleans Saturday.

—Harry B., 2:174, started out green last year and won 13 races out of 17.

—The Harrodsburg Sayings reports sales of 20 cattle, 1,500 pounds, at 260.

—John Murphy sold to J. C. Johnson, of Boyle, a small bunch of cattle at 2c.

—Frank Anderson sold to B. F. Robinson, of Garrard, a bunch of fat hogs at 3c.

—George Baker bought of various parties a bunch of mountain cattle at 2 to 2½c.

—Milton Young has offered the great stallion, Hanover, to Richard Croker for $50,000.

—John A. Goldsmith, the dead cattleman, left an estate amounting to nearly $500,000.

—Horner, a seven-months old colt stepped an eighth in 27 seconds over the Dallas track.

—Five well-broke, five-year-old mares, a good carriage horse and a young mare for sale. B. B. King, Moreland.

—More good brood mares will be bred in Tennessee this year than in any previous year in the history of the State.

—Edward Ayres, the well-known turfman, formerly owner of the great green, is dying at his home in Woodford county.

—Beast 2:061 pacing, brought $2,750 at auction at Springfield, O. He was a great horse last year and $10,000 was refused for him.

—There are now 46 trotters in the 2:10 list, 65 in the 2:11 list, 115 in the 2:12 list, 188 in the 2:13 list, 273 in the 2:14 list and 309 in the 2:15.

—P. P. Nunnelley bought in the mountains for S. H. Shanks 18 mile colts at $15 to $18. Mr. Shanks now has 35 that cost him an average of $16.50.

—The Mayville Fair Grounds, including 100 acres of land, were sold by the assignee to Thomas A. Keith for $11,000. The buildings alone cost $13,000 a few years ago.

—John Embry, of Jessamine, bought for Simon Weihl of J. B. Foster 32 cattle averaging 1,350 pounds at 3.65, of Adam Pence 20 a little heavier at 3½ and of F. Reid a bunch of same at 3c.

—Simon Weihl shipped 250 head of export cattle today. It took 15 cars. They were purchased of Major John D. Harris, for the Boston export.—Richmond Pantograph. The price is not stated.

—Capt. Sam Stone has rented his grass land, consisting of 110 acres to J. W. Bates at $3.50 per acre. James Adams gets the corn land, 150 acres at $7.30, and also Capt. Stone's old home place of 40 acres for $190.—Richmond Register.

—Florida is on the verge of a big tobacco boom. There are fully 800 applications for seed tobacco on file in the Florida State department of agriculture, and tobacco growers' associations are being formed in almost every county in the State.

—Cattle are higher in Chicago and there seems to be no question about there being fewer cattle than a year ago available for marketing during the first six months of the present year, and as the demand is growing, prices it is claimed, should rule higher. Choice to fancy steers 4½ to 4½; common to choice steers 3½ to 4½; stockers and feeders 2½ to 3½.

—I will conduct a Wholesale and Retail business this year with increased facilities and respectfully ask a share of your patronage, with full assurance that for your time spent in looking your compensation will be great. This move enables me to purchase goods low and furnish my customers with goods for less money than any dealer in the State. This is business. Quick sales and small profits.

O. C. Cox, manager of the opera house at Lawrenceburg, telegraphed us yesterday: Schubert's delighted our people Saturday night. They deserve packed houses.

It is unlawful now to catch, kill or pursue with such intent, or have the same in possession after it has been caught or killed, any quail, partridge or pheasant under a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $25 for each offense.

The Heines didn't draw very much, so the Lady Maccahees are in the con somme about $10 by the effort to make money in the show business. Experience is a rather costly teacher, but knowledge obtained in that way, is generally worth more. No order or society here has ever failed to lose by such an undertaking.

The First National Bank of Fort Scott, Kansas, after having made its stockholders lose half their holdings, has skipped another dividend and in the place of it President Wm. Cheneau singe his tale of woe in a circular letter, which between the lines shows that things are bad and getting worse, and stockholders had as well prepare themselves for it.

The Odd Fellows elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Edgar Wilkinson, N. G.; Waverly Hamilton, V. G.; W. H. Wearen, S.; Dr. J. K. VanArsdale, W.; Joe F. Waters, C.; A. C. Sine, Chaplain; Peter Straub, Jr., T.; J. T. Harris, I. G.; A. C. Alford, O. G.; J. A. Allen, R. S. N.; G. M. Bruce, L. S. N.; G. Alex Moberly, L. S. S.; J. H. Greer, R. S. S.; A. C. Sine, Wm. Daugherty and Joseph Seaverance, Sr., Tres.

The Paris News says that the Schuberts gave unbounded satisfaction there, each vocal number being encored. "Master Tommy Purcell, a wonderfully precocious child, made a great hit in his violin solo, comic song and humorous recitation. He is certainly a prodigy." Our people don't often get a chance to hear as good a company and the prospect is that they will embrace it. Next Saturday night, Reservoir seats now on sale at W. B. McRoberts' at 75c.

BURST.—A dispatch from Lebanon yesterday said that the passing Player had passed away. Some of them passing to Cincinnati and the others to Evansville. Business was so poor there that they gave up the unequal struggle and struck out for more appreciative climes. The "Great Diana" didn't seem to dance herself into public favor and no great number pressed to see her shake 150 yards of skirt in calcium lights. The Opera House managers here are out several dollars by the misfit engagement, but perhaps the better so. They had rather lose than to offer a show that does not come up to expectation. This has been a terrific season on theatrical companies. At least half a dozen went to pieces in Kentucky last week, with 44 other States to hear from. The law of the survival of the fittest keeps the Schuberts on deck and they will be here promptly next Saturday to give our music lovers a treat they will greatly enjoy.

A very lamentable tragedy was enacted at the home of Frank Waldner near Milledgeville last week, in which three little children were perhaps fatally wounded. Frank Waldner, a four-year-old boy and cousin of the little girls, had been enjoying snapping paper caps at them with a toy pistol given him Christmas, when Rosa, the oldest girl, also four-year-old, suggested that she knew where there was a bigger pistol, and she searched a bureau and procured her father's revolver, which Frank took from her, and began firing at them. He shot at Rosa once and missed her and the next time brought her to the floor with a ball through the hip. Without stopping he fired at the baby, which became frightened and crawled under the bed and shot it in the stomach. The next time he attempted to fire the pistol it snapped. He cocked it again, held the barrel with the muzzle pointing toward his face and pulled the trigger just to see how it worked. The bullet perforated his head. Physicians do not think the boy and youngest girl can recover.

WANTED.—Everybody to call and settle his account. I need the money. Mrs. Kate Dudder.

NEW FIRM.—Carroll Shanks and A. A. Warren will open a grocery store in Squire Murphy's store-room in a few days.

JANUARY 1st is here and you are earnestly requested to come in and settle. H. C. Rupley.

Arron Jan. 1st you will find us in the store now occupied by Mrs. McKinney, Danks, the Jeweler.

We have moved into our new quarters in Judge Carson's store-room. Come and see us. Danks, the jeweler.

If you want a cheap suit of clothes go to Shanks'. You can get it there either ready-made or tailor-made.

STRAYED or stolen from my stable Friday last a blood bay mare, 3 years old and 14 hands high. Liberal reward for her return. R. O. Warren.

The city makes a good showing of its condition in another column, but unfortunately several of the items named as assets are not worth par by a good deal.

Our accounts are now all ready and we shall expect everyone to do his duty, that is to pay, and our books are now closed as we are closing out. Hughes & Tate.

The Q. & C. took off trains 7 and 8 Sunday and changed the leaving time of No. 3 from Cincinnati to 10 a. m., which passes Junction City at 2:00 a. m. Nos. 1 and 2 do not stop at Junction City.

I HAVE rented the business of M. F. Elkin and will continue the business at the same stand. I will sell for cash exclusively and know that I can make it to your interest to pay cash. Louis Waiz.

I HAVE placed my accounts in the hands of Jesse D. Wearen for collection and will expect all who owe me to settle in the next 30 days. I am determined to straighten up my business. Dr. J. F. Peyton.

The Cincinnati papers say that John H. Kirby, of this place, is in trouble there, and yesterday his uncle, W. J. Kinnard, of Lancaster, went over and brought him home. Mr. Kirby has been acting very strangely of late, and his friends think his mind is diseased.

The fellow Thompson, who was taken snipe hunting here, because of his freshness, has been heard from again. He handed a young lady at Louisa a card with a lot of gush written on it and barely escaped condign punishment from her father. Investigation proved that he had circulated the card extensively and an indignation meeting was held, which resolved to invite him to leave. He accepted the invitation and standing not upon the order of his going went at once.

A WATER HAUL IN EVERY WAY.—At the solemn hour of midnight, Saturday, "when church yards are supposed to yawn and hell itself breathe out contagion to this world," Ed Wilkinson, who is preparing himself for a speech to the Odd Fellows he intended making at the next meeting, heard a gentle tapping at his chamber door. He opened it, when to his horror a man dodged before him. Slamming the door and has easily getting his pistol, he banged away twice at the fleeing figure, shouting "Robber" the while. Dr. W. B. Penny, returning from the depot, where he went to meet the express, happened along just then, and by chance having a pistol opened up fire also on a man, who seemed to spring out of the earth. The fellow ran toward the depot and in his flight went full tilt against an electric light pole, knocking him down and making himself easy prey for Marshal Newland, who is always on hand. The fellow declared he was no robber and begged to be let loose, without avail. He, however, watched his chance and when the marshal's back was turned, struck out at full speed, followed by bullets from the officer's pistol. One of the men, who proved to be Oss. Portman, didn't stop till he got to Mr. D. W. Vandevere's, where he fell fainting. When he recovered his breath he aroused his relative and got him to come up town and help him out of the snap. In mean time Jud Phillips, whom Wilkinson had shot at, had rushed breathless to Baughman's stable and begged to be hid away. He was in a most pitiable condition, being wet, his clothes torn and the blood streaming from wounds made by running against water plug, &c. By this time Mr. Vandevere and his man had arrived and on his assertion that the men were not robbers or horse thieves, and by standing good for their appearance if they were wanted, they were permitted to strike for the tall timber of their native hills in Casey county, sad, wetter and wiser men. The fellow explained that they had come to run off with a girl who had recently come from that county to this place, in response to a note signed by her that she would be ready to fly at midnight Saturday. This note was addressed to Phillips, who had been showing some attention to the girl, and it was evidently a put up job, for she was fast asleep and knew nothing of the excitement until after it was over. She is just 15 and doesn't look as if she ever thought of such an escapade. The men had tied their horse out near the Hustonville toll gate before coming to town, and Eb Lawton, seeing their actions, thought they were horse thieves and reported the matter to Marshal Newland and that is why that officer was on their tracks. It was a terrible experience with them and it is safe to predict that they will never be caught in such a scrape again.

The city council has ordered 500 copies of the contract of the city of Stanford with the Stanford Water, Light and Ice Co. printed.

The present has been a pretty cold snap, the mercury going down to 9°. Yesterday was clear and considerably warmer and the signal service said it would be followed by threatening and still warmer weather Tuesday.

Mrs. SABRA P. REID sold yesterday to Mrs. R. B. Mahony her pretty cottage on West Main street for $2,700. Mr. J. J. McRoberts will occupy it this year. Mrs. Reid also sold to Mrs. Dr. J. B. Owsley 62½ acres of land on the Knob Lick pike two miles from Stanford for $3,500.

That was all a blud about Mayor Duncan of Lexington, attempting to hold on to the office. He will peacefully retire.

B. J. Cloud, one of the best known stock traders in Central Kentucky, was found dead in a field near Winchester Sunday. He was last seen near the spot where he was found, 17 days ago, and the condition of his body indicated that he had been dead that long. The body was frozen stiff and the fingers on one hand had been eaten off by ground mice.
